This map is an index map to the public land record. Only surface ownership is being represented. More detailed maps (state status plats) portraying state land ownership by township are available at the Public Information Center, Department of Natural Resources. Similar maps (master title plats) portraying federal and ANCSA land ownership are available at the Public Room, Bureau of Land Management. Please consult these maps for a more precise location of land ownership, and consult the public land record for current land status information.
